

SUPPLEMENT.

New Point.

—Miss Lizzie Feitz is very sick we are sorry to learn.

—Miss Carrie Amos, of St. Joseph, is visiting friends here.

—The work on John Lewis' new house is progressing nicely.

—William Kunkel will soon remove his shoe shop to Fillmore.

—Miss Maude Cowan, we are glad to learn, is gradually recovering.

—J. A. Oren has built a commodious granary on his farm north west of here.

—Miss Emma Gray, living south of here, is recovering from injuries received by being thrown from a buggy at the camp meeting not long since.

—Wouldn't it be a fine thing if somebody would condescend to fix some of those dilapidated hitching racks along the church. We think it would.

—B. F. Kunkel's house has donned a hue of yellow, the natural consequence of coming into contact with a paint brush in the hands of Leonard Huntsman.

—Look out for something startling soon. If you don't hear "those wedding bells" inside of a month you can come around and tell "Chestnut Sorrel" that he is guilty of maliciously mis-stating facts.

—Rev. S. G. Fisher, of Wichita, Kansas, has taken pastoral charge of the church at this place. He moved with his family into the parsonage last week. Mr. Fisher is a fine theologian, a fearless expounder of the word of God and a very pleasant gentleman.

Sentinel Office, Oregon, Mo.

—Grand-pa Beauchamp, who is 83 years old past, has been working very hard this summer and fall. He gets around as lively as a fifteen year old boy.

—E. S. Burns has built a new picket fence around his yard, and is painting his new house. Emmett is quite a rustler, and is rapidly coming to the front.

—Misses Ella and Emma Triplett, with their gentlemen friends, Messrs. Taylor and Neely, were visiting their friend, Mrs. Clara Neely on Sunday, August 31st.

—George Harper, a young man who left this neighborhood about nine years ago, and went to California, returned a short time since, and has decided to make Missouri his future home.

—The corn crop of this vicinity is very good, considering the dry season. The yield, unless injured by frost, will be more than half a crop. So Rush Bottom will not have to go to Egypt next year for corn.

—Died, at his home, five miles southwest of Craig, Mo., September 21, 1890, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. John Kelso, at the age of eighteen months and 15 days. The body was interred in the Guillian's cemetery, northwest of Craig. The parents have the sympathy of the writer in their sad bereavement.

—The "Paw Paw" Chapel Sunday school is progressing very nicely under the care of our worthy superintendent, Mr. John Guilliams. We are going to have a Sunday school picnic sometime the last of this month, but the time has not, as yet, been fixed. Several other Sunday schools will be invited to unite with us.

—It now seems as though there will be no school in the Kelso District, as James Anderson, who verbally contracted for the school, with the understanding that he was to commence teaching the first Monday in September, is still with B. L. Chambers in northern Nebraska, holding down a claim. I suppose he will return sometime between this and the fourth of next July. Now, if it had been one of Holt county's teachers, who attends institutes, and who is deeply interested in the schools of Holt county, instead of Mr. Anderson, of Nebraska, he would have been dropped long ere this. But such is life in the far west.

—Farmers are all busy sowing wheat. —Mrs. C. F. Sipes was visiting friends and relatives in Oregon, last week.

—E. H. Spencer has rented the Lampkin, farm recently vacated by Riley Worley.

—F. McFee is erecting a fine residence on his farm, to take the place of the one that was burned last May.

—A. J. Rice was in our midst last week buying hogs. He bought 30 head from Charles Sipes that averaged 250, for $4 per hundred weight.

—Charles Applegate has sold his claim of 50 acres, on the island south of Forbes, to Samuel Haskett, of Doniphan county, Kansas, for $600.

—Our road overseer is busy cleaning out the roads and putting them in good condition. Mr. William Baker is the right man in the right place.

—Charles Parker, of Bigelow, is occupying his fine residence erected on his claim on the island south of Forbes. It is one of the finest buildings in the Baker district.

—Our school board acted wisely in employing Dr. A. Cason as teacher. He is one of the best educated men that ever wielded the branch here—being a graduate of the Georgia State University, and of the Louisville Medical College, of Kentucky.

—Lunsford & Co., of Forest City, are now ready to buy your apples. They will be found in the J. M. Ford warehouse. They pay the highest cash market price for apples and other fruits.

—D. M. Martin will save you money on a Cart and Harness—twelve different styles of Carts.
